ſpect, that, to whatever Generation thereof, the Imperial Diadem of theſe Kingdoms may hereafter deſcend; Your Royal Highneſs will reign, at leaſt, in a glorious Poſterity, and England will bleſs Your ſucceſsful Endeavors in faſhioning its future Sovereign for the Good of Mankind.

I cannot but add, as a farther Inſtance of Your Goodneſs, the great Value You expreſs, on all Occaſions, for the ſeveral Parts of Our Conſtitution; and, in particular, Your Juſt Eſteem and Affection for Our moſt Gracious QUEEN: the Bleſſings of whoſe Reign, I can boaſt of the Honor to have heard Your Royal Highneſs commemorate, with a pleaſing Admiration; even before the late aſtoniſhing Succeſſes were known to have encreas'd the Number of them. You
