

The first of these is the Book of the City of Dreadful Night, which was published in 1817. It is a long poem in blank verse, and is divided into three books. The first book is the longest, and is the most famous. It tells the story of two sailors, Roderick Usher and his friend, who are on a voyage to the South Sea. They are shipwrecked on a remote island, and are forced to live in a dark, gloomy house. The poem is a masterpiece of the gothic genre, and is one of the most famous works of the Romantic period.
